

MISSOURI 2011 CCAP CLASS MEETING OFFICIAL NOTICE

The Missouri 2011 Certified Community Action Professional (CCAP) Class will meet at the Missouri Association for Community Action office, 2014 William Street, Jefferson City, Missouri, on Tuesday, April 12, 2011, 10:00 a.m. The meeting will continue to employ Herman Melville's six strategies for understanding difficult material: Diligent study, a series of systemic visits to it, careful inquiry of the neighbors, much and earnest contemplation, oft and repeated pondering, and letting in the light. Charles H. McCann, CCAP Emeritus, will chair the meeting.

Agenda:

1. Community Action Promise.
2. Assessment of Each Candidate's Status.
3. Resolution of Candidates' Concerns.
4. Strategy Discussion.
5. Make-up Reports: Study Guide Section C.
6. Study Guide Section D1, D2:
 - Discussion of Each Source Document.
 - Anticipating Questions.
7. Understanding Community Action: Professional Excellence.
8. Ethics Check: Making the Fifth and Seventh Ethics Real.
9. Study Guide Section D3, D4, D5:
 - Discussion of Each Source Document.
 - Anticipating Questions.
10. Affirmation of Remaining Class Meetings:
11. Assignment of Homework.
12. Adjournment at 3:00 p.m.

Expectations are that everyone has read assigned material and that discussion leaders are ready. In addition, everyone will be asked to make a contribution to the discussion of Ethics Five and Seven. Please bring your 2011 Community Action Professionals Handbook CD, a computer, and your 2011 Understanding Community Action workbook. Also, please bring a sack lunch. All CCAP candidates are invited to attend.
