Using Data to Tell Community Action's Story

This workshop will focus on the following learning objectives:

- Accessing census data, the census website and tools
- Data available from the Office of Social and Economic Data Analysis (OSEDA) and best practices when working with data
- State and county level data available from the following state departments:
  - Missouri Department of Social Services
  - Missouri Department of Health & Senior Services (MICA)
  - Missouri Department of Economic Development (MERIC)
- Reports available from the Missouri Community Action MIS
- Create trends and projections using Microsoft Excel tools

Agenda

9:30 a.m.        Missouri Economic Research & Information Center (MERIC)

10:00 a.m.       Office of Social and Economic Data Analysis (OSEDA) – Dr. Tracy Greever-Rice

12:00 p.m.       Lunch provided

1:00 p.m.        MACA's CCNA tool & getting data from MACA MIS System – Kurt Brewer, MACA

1:30 p.m.        Telling the Community Action Story with Data:  Dr. Lilliard Richardson, Executive Associate Dean – School of Public and Environmental Affairs at Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis

3:30 p.m.        Adjourn

Who should attend?

- Grant developers
- Strategic planners
- Community planners and presenters
- ROMA trainers
- Program managers responsible for outcomes

Registration:

To register, please use the following link:  Data Training Registration.  You will need to log into Neon with your user ID.  If you don't have a Neon ID, please contact MACA before registering.  This training is limited to 45 individuals.

Logistics:        July 12, 2016        9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
                  MACA Office        Jefferson City

Registration:     Deadline is July 1, 2016

Questions?        Contact Jeff Barlow at jbarlow@communityaction.org or 573-634-2969.