ABOUT COMMUNITY ACTION

HELPING PEOPLE REACH SELF-SUFFICIENCY FOR MORE THAN 50 YEARS

Missouri's 19 nonprofit Community Action Agencies (CAAs) work statewide to help people achieve self sufficiency. CAAs provide localized, direct services to low-income Missourians. Programs from several CAAs include:

- + Energy & Housing: CAAs help alleviate energy and housing burdens through programs like energy efficiency & transitional housing.
- + Food: CAAs help feed families through community gardening & summer food programs.
- + Education: CAAs equip families through Head Start, employment training & workforce development.
- + Health: CAAs offer preventative care, women's health programs, child dental screenings.
- + Family & Economic Security: CAAs provide a variety of programs to promote economic security like life skills training & financial programs.

Support Missouri CAN and help strengthen Missouri's Community Action Agencies to make a difference!

Helping People & Changing Lives in all 114 Missouri counties. Missouri CAN is a nonpartisan, nongovernmental, nonprofit organization.
