

Outreach Director

Missouri Community Action Network is seeking an Outreach Director. Candidates must have a desire to make a difference helping people and changing lives by supporting Missouri's Community Action Agencies. The Outreach Director is responsible for identifying, developing, and managing collaborative relationships, advocacy and outreach efforts, and grant funding opportunities for Missouri CAN. This includes, but is not limited to, creating and maintaining both a long and short term resource development plan for the association, cultivating relationships with other organizations of similar missions and goals, pursuing grant opportunities for the association and for our member agencies, and other activities as needed to ensure the aligned growth and development of the Association's priorities. This position includes supervising professional team members in the areas of strategic communications, advocacy, and outreach efforts. The ideal candidate will have outstanding interpersonal skills, and at least five years' experience in successfully cultivating group relationships in a non-profit environment, and a Bachelor's Degree in a related field. A combination of additional experience, education and certifications may be considered. This position is based in Jefferson City, and involves limited in-state travel. We offer a competitive salary, excellent benefits package, and a rewarding work environment. Complete the application at www.communityaction.org/our-team and submit along with your resume via email to info@communityaction.org by Feb 10, 2017. Positions open until filled. Successful candidates will be submitted thru E-Verify. EOE
